

Newsletter 21 May 2023

In the first week of Winter Scroungers, visitor Bill Harris demolished the rest of the field with his score of 84 points. Stan Ayr and Phil Ramsden tied for second place with their 70 points.

In a very close finish, the winners of Thursday's social bowls were Peter Hewson, Julian Hough and Denis Tranter with a score of 6 + 18. One point behind were Trevor Barrett, Richard Norrish and Peter Haywood with 6 + 17. Wally Mycock and Lauwrens Smit combined well to gain third place with their score of 6 + 10.

On Saturday, Phil Wegner and Jim Hyde had a convincing win in the Pairs Competition with their score of 6 + 17. Second were Jan Jefferis and Brian Richardson with their 6 + 10 and the honourable mention went to Mick Patterson and Leo Tuffley who scored 3 + 3.

Feedback from the Men's League meetings on Saturday:

The motion for teams which win the Pennant Finals to be promoted rather than the season winners, was LOST.

The motion for Pennant Finals to be discontinued was withdrawn.

The motion for 3rd Division Finals to have the same format as 1st and 2nd Divisions was WON.

The motion for 3rd Division Pennant teams to become open gender was deferred and will be subject to further discussion by a sub-committee.

Andy McFarlane's suggestions regarding future arrangements for League matches was discussed in General Business and the League Match Committee will meet again to make a final decision.

More success for Emu Point bowlers – the team of Shelley Mason, Len Mason and regular Scroungers player Brian Osman were unbeaten when they played in Middleton Beach's Swing Arm Mixed Open Event, and they finished third overall in the Carnival.

Gwen Anning watching another one of her bowls going into the head.

Len Mason acknowledging their 3rd place prize.