

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

10th MARCH 2019

SCROUNGERS 28 players contested for the honours on Tuesday. Ken Luff was the winner with Geoff Sadgrove second and Wal Mycock in third spot.

Yvonne Shalders took the Plate from Helen MacFarlane.

Congratulations to Jan Jefferis on winning the Emu Point Ladies Singles Championship this year with a decisive win from Lyn Richardson, runner up.

Good luck to Kaye Blight who was selected in the team to represent our League in the Inter League Round Robin Fours at Dunsborough this weekend. Go girl.

After a hard week at Country Week Leo Tuffley had the honour, in full pub dress, of cutting the ribbon to open the new Nyabing tavern. Congratulations to the Nyabing community.

Five bowlers from Emu Point enjoyed Country Week and all won some games but none got into the finals.
