

THE EMU POINT BOWLER – 14TH JANUARY 18

Denmark Country Club ran a very successful Mens Fours Competition last weekend.

The team of Len Brown, Terry Martin, Steve (Snaggers) Tuffley and Clive Smith were very competitive and pleased to win the second day prize.

Our big one, The Emu Point Classic Mens Invitation Fours was held during the week.

A combination of perfect playing surfaces, friendly company, great organization, excellent catering from the ladies and ideal weather lead to a very successful tournament. Thanks go to all workers who did their bit.

Seen here is winning skipper Kevin Heberle speaking on behalf of his team of Bill Harris, Des Murray and Victor Wellstead all from Gnowangerup. He is flanked by some of our hard working committee members Len Brown, John Carpenter Geoff Sadgrove and Nan Sounness.

Coming second was a team from Mt. Barker Golf, R. Wiese, B. Wright, R. Plant and P. Ramsden. Third was a team from Mid Beach skippered by Lou Mancini and fourth was a Dalkeith team lead by ex-Borden's Ross Donald.

SOCIAL BOWLS

In windy and wet conditions on Thursday, Stan Ayre and Lyn Pinney overcame the weather to beat Ron Adams and Tom Plaisted for first place.

JOKES (courtesy Denmark Club newsletter)

A Scotsman won a toilet brush in a raffle. A few weeks later a friend asked him if he was getting any use from the toilet brush. "Well" came the reply. "I don't think much of it. I think I'll go back to using toilet paper."

Overheard in the bar: “The Mrs and I have been married so long she can finish my sentences for me. In fact she can also start them and usually supplies the middle parts as well.”
