THE EMU POINT BOWLER

SCROUNGERS. Phil Ramsden won again from Terry Martin and Geoff Sadgrove. Captain Geoff has asked members to give some thought to the handicapping system before the AGM to make the game more equitable. Example - winner has a 6 shot handicap instead of 3 or handicap stays permanent for the season.

The Ladies Singles final was held on Wednesday. Izzie Mason was triumphant over Jan Jefferis in a close game. In the Plate Kaye Blight was the winner from Lyn Richardson.

THURSDAY SOCIAL.
38 players

enjoyed the day. Leo Tuffley with Jean Herstead and Des Forbes were all in exceptional form to win the day from Noel Parkin, Prakash Kalyan and Arthur Gorman. Joining in was a delegation from the Vision Impaired and Blind Bowlers Assn to support Serge Ansquer who is going to the National Championships at Port McQuarrie in May. Seen here with their guide dog was President Wayne Forbes, Vice President Mike Pullinger and Director Howard Dickenson.

FRIDAY. Casual bowlers including the local Veterinary workers had a roll before tea Gus Woithe got the old player piano rocking while later Richie and Wal got in the mood to provide some singing entertainment. No more, thanks boys.

PENNANTS. Mens Red beat Mt Barker 5-1. Purple lost to MB Golf 1-5. 3RD Div. won 6-0 from Green Range. Mid-Point lost to Denmark 0-6. Ladies 1st div. won 3 ½ - ½ from Denmark. 2nd div. lost to Mt Barker 1-3. Bowlers were treated to some fine country cooking after the game for a “crockpot tea”. Thanks ladies.
