

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

September 10 2023

At Scroungers on Tuesday, Phil Ramsden continued his consistent good form with another win with his 69 points. After taking his handicap into account, he finished one point ahead of Brian Richardson, who scored 64 points. Chris Symonds' great second game brought her total up to 58 points to finish third.

Glorious weather brought bowlers out of the woodwork on Thursday and a good field of 48 players saw Andy McFarlane, Brian Osman and Lauwrens Smit win on a countback from Ian Smith, Leo Tuffley and Noel Parkin. Both teams scored 6 + 16. Anne Hunter, Bruce Seymour and Des Forbes combined to finish third with a score of 6 + 14.

Ken Luff returned to the greens on Saturday after several weeks in Darwin getting bowls tips from Prakash. He jumped straight back into winning form partnering with Julian Hough and Di Buxton to score 6 + 16. John Dye, Yvonne Shalders and Izzy Mason finished a point behind with 6 + 15. Jan Jefferis, Ross Mitchell and Kevin Crane attained third place with their score of 6 + 8.

The AFL Finals started well for one-eyed Collingwood supporter Phil Wegner whose team won their first final. It got even better for him over the weekend as he finished up winning the pot in the Club Footy Tipping Competition. Phil, Ross Mitchell, Alan Spence, Karen Dye, Andy McFarlane and John Spencer all picked the four successful teams, but Phil was closest to the winning margin in the final game.

Jim Hyde and Gwen Anning will be sponsoring the President's Day on Saturday 16th September. It will be a Mufti event and participants are asked to bring a plate or a $10 donation. The following day will see the Club Triples Men's Round Robin Competition, commencing at 9.30 am. Captain Allen Poor urgently needs a few more nominations to even up the draw. Please contact him on 98 428590 or add your name to the list on the noticeboard. Teams will be drawn so you don't need to make up a team.

The Club's Golden Anniversary Opening Day will be on Sunday 24th September, at which participants are asked to wear their Pennant uniform.
