

THE EMU POINT BOWLER- 18TH FEB 2018

Four keen bowlers and their wives travelled half way to the W.A. border to enjoy the ambience of the Condingup Bowling Club last weekend. The Browns, the Hydes, the Connells and the Heals spent a few days holidaying out there before caravanning home.

SCROUNGERS - Gib Trethowan cleaned up in the major while Brian Richardson stole the plate from Don Williams.

LADIES – The Singles Championship was played on Wednesday. The finals will be fought out next Wednesday at 10am between Yvonne Shalders and Kaye Blight and the Plate between Lyn Richardson and Izzie Mason. Worth coming to watch some excellent bowls before social bowls in the afternoon.

THURSDAY – A good field of 57 bowlers enjoyed the day playing the usual triples comp.

Winners were Stan Ayre with Ray Lewis and visitor Ian Stevic? from Jan Jefferis, Tom Plaisted and Peter Haywood.

FRIDAY – 16 Barefoot bowlers had some fun on Friday evening followed by some 120 guests for our very sociable dinners. Chase the Ace is getting exciting with $750 up for grabs.

MENS PENNANTS – Saturday. 2nd Division Purple had a clean sweep 6-0 against Mt. Barker Golf. The Red team travelled to Walpole but lost 2-4. 3rd Division had a wipe out 0-6 against Green Range.

VALE JOHN BEATTIE. The members of our Club are sad to see the passing of one of our long time and most esteemed members, John Beattie last Friday. His life will be celebrated at a funeral service at the Bethany Chapel on Friday 23rd at 2pm.
Emu Point

members who wish, are invited to form a guard of honour in their Club uniforms.
Friends are invited to a wake in his honour at the Club afterwards.
