

THE EMU POINT BOWLER – JAN 21st 2018

THURSDAYS SOCIAL saw 42 bowlers playing a 7 end competition for something different.

Winners on the day were Eric Heal, Phil Ramsden and Arthur Gorman from Elaine Hewson, John Bryant and Gib Trethowan.

FRIDAY afternoon saw two greens full with happy barefoot bowlers most of whom came in afterwards for our Friday evening meal to swell the numbers to a near record 140 patrons.

A big shout out to the hard work of Richie and Nan for their persistence in encouraging this form of the game for new players and holiday makers.

CLUB TRIPLES CHAMPIONS – Tricia Forbes, Margaret Connell and Kaye Blight were pictured here with runners up Sheila Quicke, Jan Jefferis and Helen Mc Farland.

“Happy Birthday” was in order on Wednesday and one was a milestone one. one must never reveal a womans age. So it – secret womans business!!

Two ladies teams travelled to the Ladies Kojonup Classic last week. Tricia Forbes, Kaye Blight, Isobel Mason and Christine Radford played well to come third with Yvonne Shalders Lyn Pinney, Helen Penny Lyn Richardson 4th.

But
be

and

LADIES PENNANTS 1ST DIV defeated Mid Beach 3-1.

2nd div. Emu point were beaten 3-1 by Frankland.

New member Ken Luff made a big impression

When he teamed with Peter Hewson to win the Club Pairs Championship on the weekend, defeating Phil Wegner and Barny Doyle.

Another new member “Snaggers” Tuffley and seasoned member Kevin Crane won the Plate from Bluey Mason and Richie Sounness.

TENNIS CARNIVAL - Congratulations to Bec Jefferis and Wendy Birch winning the Annual Womens B division. Also to 12yo Abby Gibson and Micheal Offerman for winning the Open Mixed event on Sunday. Over140 players contested this very successful weekend.