

THE EMU POINT BOWLER – AUGUST 28 2016

Hi everybody. It's good to be back in peaceful friendly little old Emu Point.

President Wal welcomed a good crowd of forty bowlers to brilliant sunshine and gorgeous weather for Thursdays social bowls. Welcome back those lucky people who escaped the worst Albany weather in years and well done to those hardy folk who battled through it. Come on Spring!!!

THURSDAYS WINNERS were Wal Mycock, Kevin Byford(visitor from NSW) and that perennial winner Ray Anderson. R/U Allan Poor , John Carpenter and Jean Vonderling.

SCROUNGERS – Winner Terry Martin , Plate - Norm Rich (visitor from Tasmania).

SATURDAY – Paul Groves, Terry Henneker and Kevin Crane won from a small field .

We survived the fall, er Falls. That is Niagara Falls.

Only in America Times Square NY.
But these Guys with their machine Carbines were quite happy to have their photo taken.

Best wishes to esteemed life member Ray Lewis for a speedy recovery from his recent heart problems. Our thoughts are with you Ray.

Please send any items of interest, not necessarily bowls related . Photos , short video, news ,opinion, prose , even poetry (I know some of you write excellent poetry) would be appreciated.

See you in the Spring.
