

THE EMU POINT BOWLER – OCTOBER 10

GRAND OPENING OF BOWLS – President Wal officially opened the 2016 summer season last Thursday to a good field of 48 enthusiastic players .

Joan Ward and Keith Biglin, two long standing and respected members of the Club seen here rolling the first two bowls of the season amidst appreciative applause from the members.

A mixed triples competition was held, sponsored by Reeves Butchers and the winners were Captain Phil Wegner, Dulcie Treeby and Elaine Hewson. 2nd was Stan Eyre, Lyn Richardson and Ron Brown. Third place went to John Bryant, Bruce Day and Judy Heal.

The first summer scroungers comp. started last Tuesday. Winner Peter Hewson.

Plate winner was John Shaylor.

The Mens Club Triples bowls competition was run despite atrocious conditions on Saturday and Sunday. 24 intrepid members played and the winning team was John Shaylor, Jeff Spinks and Peter Hewson.

Coming second was Len Brown, Eric Heal and new member Des Forbes. Third was Bruce Day and Clive Smith who shared skippers duties, Geoff Sadgrove and Allen Poor.

Like the new Sprinkler System?

This is how the weather has been lately. Brrrr.

Time for some proper Spring weather with birds singing, skippers singing (or whistling in the case of one well known member) and everyone happy. Bring it on!
