

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

SCROUNGERS. Phil Ramsden won again despite his 4 handicap. It's now 8. Good luck with that. Runner up was Jim Hyde.

Despite the weather, a good field contested the annual pop stick Hospice Day. Winners were Athol Ward, Ozzie Osman and Nan Sounness with Mark Selby, Trevor Barrett and Jim Hyde, second. JeanAnn Babour from the Hospice organisation spoke about this wonderful facility in Albany and received all proceeds of the day some $768.

Thanks to some generous donations we now have new aluminium benches down our centre corridor. The greens look very up to date with the new covers and benches. Well done to Phil Wegner for his initiative to organise the benches.

Colin Crane has had his chain saw and his bowls stolen from his home. Keep an eye out for black SRV size 3 bowls with a dog logo in a red bag.

Next Thursday is Mike and Trevors Turkey Triples day. This will be a fun day before Christmas with the big hamper draw and pizzas afterwards so stay and enjoy the atmosphere with our wonderful bar maid Rhonda. Good to see her back and well.
