

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

There were 25 scroungers bowling on Tuesday with a very close game at the top. 3rd place was Phil Ramsden with 77 points less handicap 8 = 69. Joint top was Terry Martin and Richie Sounness both with 77 points and both with 4 handicap. Richard won on a countback. Exciting stuff.

I made some errors last week. Mt Barker won the Ladies League Fours with Cranbrook second. Also I missed Graham Bain and Harvey Waddell from our League who were selected for Mens IZRR. Lucky someone is on the ball.

THURSDAY SOCIAL BOWLS. 41 players enjoyed the balmy conditions. Is there a better place to be? Paul groves, Allen poor and Glen Macaulay with a big score of 6+21 won from Peter Hewson, Carol Cockerill and the much improved Murray Martin.

SATURDAYS BOWLS saw Mark Selby, Noel Parkin and Jim Hyde take the cake from the only other dual winners Doug Wright, Gary Pollett and Steve Cockerell. An honourable mention goes to Andy McFarlane, Phil Ramsden and Carol Cockerill's team which had the biggest score (4+13) but only one win and a draw.

LADIES PENNANTS. 1ST Division at home lost to Mt Barker Golf 36/24 and 1/3. 2nd Division lost away to Cranbrook 1/3.

At Kojonup our ladies did well to come fourth in their Ladies Open Fours. Seen here is Trish Forbes with Gwen Anning, Kaye Blight and Christine Radford receiving their prizes and telling how they did it.

The Emu Point Sporting Club was dominated by tennis players this weekend for the annual Emu Point

Open Tennis Tournament. Locals Brian and Fran Stamp won the B Grade mixed competition pictured here with Tennis President Colin Veale.
