

THE EMU POINT BOWLER 2ND APRIL 2017

SCROUNGERS - Regular visitor Phil Ramsden stole the main event from Pat Adlam. Good to see keen player Maureen Reading win the plate from visitor Evonne Eckhardt from Victoria.

WEDNESDAY LADIES saw 18 players play in delightful conditions. The winners were Jean Vondeling, Pat Henneker and Pat Clark.

THURSDAYS SOCIAL day was attended by a big field of 49 players. In form Terry Martin, visitor Leo Tuffley from Nyabing and Dennis Tranter won the day from Gib Trethowan, Jan Jefferis and Ron Adams.

They say farmers are "Jack of All Trades" and.... But seen here being supervised by master tradesman Ian Brooks is apprentice Gus Woithe. Between them they have done an excellent job of tiling the new toilet at the shed. Our thanks go to all the volunteers on this project. More on this later.

Our sympathy goes out to stalwart member Terry Arundel who is currently in hospital with a mild stroke. He is improving but doesn't want too many visitors until he is a bit better.

Get well soon Terry so we can see you back on the bowling green.

SATURDAY There were 12 or 13 Purple players in a state of mild depression on Sunday morning after being beaten by Mt Barker for the 2nd division pennant. It has been neck to neck competition with them all season so congratulations to the winners and good luck in first division next year. Pictured here is League President Bruce Day holding the pennant shield with Colin Toone from Mt Barker.

There was quite a crowd for Saturday social bowls and the winners of the pairs competition was Elaine Hewson and John Shaylor. Second on a countback from Gib Trethowan and Lynette Erickson was Colin Crane and Gus Woithe on his 70th birthday.
