The Lower Great Southern League had a great win at the recent ILRR Carnival in Williams. They finished 2 points clear of Great Southern and the team had the most rink wins of the six Leagues. Emu Point Bowling Club had the biggest Club representation and participants included Matt Mitchell, Len Brown, Paul Garbellini, Andy Mc Farlane, Kelvin Crosby and Doug Wright. Special congratulations to Matt Mitchell, Kelvin Crosby and Doug Wright on their selection in the team to play in the IZRR Fours to be held at Manning next month.

Success also for four other Emu Point bowlers with Chris Symonds, Steve Cockerell, Colin Anning and Carol Cockerell winning third place at the recent Walpole Mixed Fours Carnival.

Special thanks to all the members who supported Steve Cockerell's running of the first two rounds of the Jack Attack Program. If you are able to help on either 25 January or 1 February, please contact Steve.

Richard Sounness provided a great fashion statement at Jack Attack with his stunning new hat.

The Ladies Pennants Season resumed last Saturday, with Emu Point teams having mixed results. 1st Division Red 1/37 lost to Albany Green 3/45 but 1st Division Purple continued their excellent form with a great win over Albany Gold, winning 4/46 to 0/30. 2nd Division Blue 0/24 lost to Cranbrook 4/60. On Saturday, Purple came back to earth losing to Red in the second of the local 1st division Derbies, 0/26 to 4/55. EP Blue had a great 4/0 win over Denmark Orange in 2nd division.

Last week at Scroungers, Ken Luff and Phil Ramsden maintained their consistent form with scores of 81 and 78 respectively. Phil finished up winning by one point after their handicaps were applied. They now both have an 8 handicap. This week, Scroungers was won on a countback by visitor Chris Squires. Phil Wegner was runner-up with both bowlers scoring 65 points. Peter Hewson was third with 64 points.

Last Thursday, Jan Jefferis, Leo Tuffley and visitor Graeme left the rest of the field in their wake with their score of 6 + 23. Runners-up were Peter Hewson, Louwrens Smit and Roy Dolan with 6 + 15 and third were Dorrie King, Roger Crosby and Rob Healey on 6 + 8. This week, Stan Ayre, Gib Trethowan and Glen Macaulay led the way with their score of 6 + 15. A close second were Len Brown, Tom Plaisted and Brendan Abrahams with 6 + 14 and third were Jan Jefferis, Chris Squires and Brian Richardson with 3 + 12.

Last Saturday's Pairs event saw no team win both games. The best score was from Peter Bradshaw and Arthur Gorman with 4 + 10. Second was Stan Ayre and Julian Hough with 4 + 8 and third was Gus Woithe and Gib Trethowan on 3 + 5. This Saturday, John Shaylor, Louwrens Smit and Arthur Gorman had a convincing win with their score of 6 + 21. Second were Doug Wright, Tod Blight and Bob Hicks on 6 + 17 and third were Len Brown, Ken Hunt and Brian Richardson on 6 + 10.

This week's Ladies' 100 Up was won by Sue Franey and Shelley Mason was runner-up. Semi-finals were contested between Sue & Carol Cockerell and between Shelley & Helen McFarlane. Welcome back Shelley.
