

A beneficiary of the Ladies Triples Carnival held in April was the Albany Hospice. June Mott and Shelley Mason are shown delivering a cheque for the $550 raised towards this worthy cause.

Last Sunday, Central was very generous in putting on a lunchtime BBQ for members of the Sporting Club who had contributed their time as volunteers in some capacity during the past twelve months. Brian Smith organised a raffle for all attendees and four lucky people were recipients of a mystery prize. Unfortunately for Bowls President Jim Hyde, he won the booby prize.

Central BBQ attendees

Winners of the mystery raffle

Tery Martin was a clear winner at Scroungers on Tuesday with his score of 75 points. Runner-up was Chris Symonds with 70 points and third was Max Hawley with 69 points.

On Thursday, Kaye Blight and Kevin Crane bolted away from the rest of the field with the great score of 6 + 25. Peter Hewson and Jean Vondeling were second with 6 + 14 and the honourable mention went to Jan Jefferis and Gib Trethowan for their score of 6 + 4.

Social Triples on Saturday saw Jean Vondeling continue her purple patch of good form, combining with Stan Ayr and Bruce Seymour to win the day with their score of 6 + 24. Runners-up were Richard Souness, Steve Cockerell and Di Buxton with 6 + 14 and third were Wally Mycock, Jim Hyde and visitor Kelly scoring 6 + 8.

Albany police arrested two old bowlers leaving their club yesterday. One was drinking battery acid, the other was eating fireworks. They charged one and let the other one off.